

Notification of Company Name Change

Effective from October 15th, 2013,
Siemens Enterprise Communications GmbH & Co. KG will change its name to Unify GmbH & Co. KG.

While our name is changing, our legal status and our office address and contact details will remain the same.
The company's business remains fundamentally unaffected by this change and all contracts with existing customers will remain unchanged, with corresponding obligations and rights assumed under the new name.

The changing of company name will not affect the compliance of any products.

All products, traded under the new company name of Unify GmbH & Co. KG, continue to comply fully with the former declared properties.
